Doctoral Research Programme

INFORMATION BROCHURE

1. The Institute

Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC) was founded by Professor VKRV Rao in 1972. Its primary objective is to provide high quality academic training to Ph D scholars to prepare them as distinguished researchers and teachers in the field of social sciences. ISEC is presently affiliated to Bangalore, Mysore, Mangalore and Osmania Universities and the National Law School of India University for the award of PhD degree. We are in the process of collaborating with IGNOU, Maastricht University and Central Asian University.

2. Location

ISEC is located amidst sylvan landscape of 16-hectare at Nagarabhavi, Bangalore, adjoining to campuses of Bangalore University and National Law School of India University. The Institute's campus is well maintained with sprawling gardens and lawns and also preserved a variety of flora and fauna. ISEC campus is situated 12 Kms away from Central Railway and Central Bus station with very good networks of buses. To find the location of the ISEC campus please visit our website: <http://www.isec.ac.in/Path to isec.pdf>

3. Organisation

The Institute has eight academic research centres with different discipline in social sciences. These include, Agricultural Development and Rural Transformation (ADRTRC), Centre for Decentralisation and Development (CDD), Centre for Ecological Economics and Natural Resources (CEENR), Centre for Economic Studies and Policy (CESP), Centre for Human Resource Development (CHRD), Centre for Political Institutions, Governance and Development (CPIGD), Centre for Study of Social Change and Development (CSSCD) and Population Research Centre (PRC). The faculty of these centres provide guidance to the Ph D Scholars for pursuing research in the individual disciplines. The strong point of training at ISEC is its emphasis on inter-disciplinary and socially relevant research.

4. Hostel and Guest House

The Institute has well equipped Hostel for boy and girl scholars and an excellent and well furnished Guest House for visiting scholars. Full time Ph D Scholars are provided hostel accommodation with reasonable rent. Visiting scholars and academicians are provided guest house accommodation.

5. Library

Dr. V K R V Rao Library is a treasure house of books, documents, reports and journals with more than 1.17 lakh collections. The library subscribes more than 300 professional foreign and Indian journals. UNDP, World Bank, UN and a number of other international organisations have recognized it as a Depository Library. The housekeeping operations and catalogue is computerized using Libsys integrated library software and the database can be accessed online. Further, the library is being digitized with financial assistance provided by Government of Karnataka. This will provide web access to large number of rare documents and connection with similar libraries across the world. Besides, this will also create access for Universities and Institutions in Karnataka.

6. Computer Lab

The Institute has state-of-art computer laboratory with web enabled network 2 mbps lease line connection for internet browsing. This is an exclusive Computer Lab facility created for the use of PhD Scholars. We are in the process of upgrading the lease line by April 2009.

7. Alumni

The Institute has so far trained 140 PhD Scholars in different social science disciplines. The scholars who obtained Ph D from ISEC are occupying high academic positions and crucial positions in many institutions in India and abroad. ISEC maintains information on its alumni on the website (<http://www.isec.ac.in/phd-alumni.htm>).

8. PhD Programmes

ISEC offers three types of Ph D Programmes in order to meet the needs of students (full-time - residential), serving academicians and interested scholars (part-time and external - non-residential). The hallmark of our Ph D Programme is its biannual seminars preceded by student's presentation before doctoral committee comprising of subject experts. The Institute constitutes a Doctoral Committee to provide valuable inputs to the PhD Scholars besides monitoring the progress of their thesis work. Every PhD Scholar is required to make presentations in the bi-annual seminars of the Institute.

i. Full Time

Full time residential PhD course at ISEC normally takes about four years to complete. During the first 10 months Scholars are provided rigorous training through a pre-Ph D coursework followed by the dissertation work which commences in the eleventh month. The doctoral scholars admitted under this programme are given fellowships for three years and provided with hostel facilities up to 5 years. A separate hostel is available for lady scholars. Candidates are required to pay fees according to University norms and an annual fee of Rupees One thousand to ISEC.

ii Part Time (Residential/Non-Residential)

This programme is open for working persons to pursue PhD on a part-time basis. Preference is given to those working in the Universities and Institutions of higher learning and ISEC employees under Faculty Improvement Programme. Eligibility requirements and selection criteria are similar as in the case of the full-time PhD programme mentioned above except that of age, which is relaxable. Part-time candidates should pass the pre-PhD course work. They are welcome to attend the classes, though attendance is not compulsory. The part-time PhD admission does not carry any form of financial assistance from ISEC. Candidates are required to pay fees according to University norms and an annual fee of Rupees Three thousand to ISEC. The part-time PhD Scholars must adhere to all the conditions and regulations stipulated by the University/Institute. The Part-time scholars require on-campus stay for the period stipulated by the supervisor.

iii. External (Non-residential)

External PhD Programme has been introduced in the Institute recently. Candidates should apply in the prescribed application form along with a research proposal. Application and research proposals are scrutinized and evaluated by a Committee. The candidates cleared by the Committee will be called for personal interaction to assess the eligibility for admission. The Supervisor will be allotted to the external PhD Fellows by the PhD Supervisors Committee. The external candidates must adhere to all the conditions and regulations stipulated by the University as well as the Institute.

There will be no financial obligation of any kind on the part of the Institute on account of the external candidates. External candidates must complete the stipulated period of stay at the Institute as decided by the Doctoral Committee. Candidates will be required to pay fees according to University norms and Foreign Scholars an annual fee of Rupees.Ten thousand to ISEC; Indian Scholars are required to pay an annual fee of Rupees Five thousand to ISEC.

9. Doctoral Committee and Bi-annual Seminar

In addition to the PhD Supervisor, every PhD Scholar will have an advisory Doctoral Committee consisting of faculty across disciplines. Doctoral Committees meet regularly and advise the scholars at various steps in research. Bi-annual seminar provides an opportunity for research scholars to make presentations about progress of their PhD work and receive valuable inputs from Panel of experts.
